

Dear Chairman Powell and Commissioners,
I am greatly disappointed by the lack of informative television programming, especially during national elections.

The FCC should define meaningful public interest requirements that include local civic and electoral affairs programming. Broadcasters should air at least two hours devoted to substantive election coverage in the six weeks prior to Election Day.

As the elections approach, a well-functioning democracy demands that citizens have access to a diversity of opinions and voices on the choices confronting us.

Sincerely,
